Sec. 1-11. Penalties and violations.

(a) Any person who violates a provision of this Code or of any ordinance of the city, whether included in the Code or any hereafter enacted, whereby any act or thing is enjoined or prohibited or required, shall unless other provision is expressly made, be liable to a penalty of $300.00 for each offense; provided, however, that whenever a higher penalty is permitted under the General Laws of Massachusetts, such higher penalty shall be the maximum penalty for each offense; and provided further, that nothing in these provisions shall be deemed to limit the use of other lawful methods of abating violations of this section including, but not limited to, application for equitable relief from a court of law. Each day a violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. In order to determine the number of offenses under this section, each offense for the property in the same calendar year shall be counted, except that snow removal violations shall be counted from October 1 through May 1 of the following year.

(b) Whoever violates any provision of this Code or any ordinance of the city, the violation of which is subject to a specific penalty, may also be penalized by a noncriminal disposition as provided in the General Laws, Chapter 40, Section 21D. The noncriminal method of disposition may also be used for violations of any rule or regulation of any municipal officer, board or department which is subject to a specific penalty.

Without intending to limit the generality of the foregoing, it is the intention of this subsection that the following ordinances and sections of ordinances are to be included within the scope of noncriminal disposition for violations of ordinances according to the General Laws, Chapter 40, Section 21D. The specific penalties, as listed here, shall apply in such cases. Except for enforcement of the building code, fire code, sanitary code, and zoning ordinances, police officers shall be considered to be enforcing persons in all cases of this subsection, except as otherwise provided by state statute, in addition to the municipal personnel listed, if any, for each subsection:
